About the School

The governors wish to appoint an outstanding teacher to our committed and caring staff in our two-form entry primary school in Clubmoor. St. Matthew's Catholic Primary School is an oversubscribed school which serves children from 4 to 11. St. Matthew's has high expectations in all areas and we strive to provide excellent teaching and learning and the care and support our children deserve. We are passionate about inclusive education and work extremely hard to meet the needs of all pupils in order for them to reach their full potential
