Coats

If you choose to send your child to school in an expensive/designer/named coat, this will be at your own risk and the school will take no responsibility for loss or damage.

Footwear

For health and safety reasons we do not allow children to wear shoes with heels, sling backs or platforms. All children are required to wear plain black shoes without logos as stated above.

If children attend school with inappropriate footwear, they will be given school pumps to wear indoors.

Hair

The school does not permit children to have haircuts that could serve as a distraction to other children. Please support us by following school policy when taking your child for a haircut.

Children must not have extreme hairstyles. Lines or patterns shaved into the hair and dyed hair are not permitted. All hair, longer than collar length must be tied back at all times.

Any hair accessories should be plain and either blue, grey or white, please note hair bows should be small in size and appropriate for school wear.

Wrist watches (not Smartwatches Watches) may be worn but removed for P.E., dance and games, again at parents' risk.

Nails

Nail varnish must not be worn in school. False nails are not allowed. School has nail varnish remover and may ask a child to take nail varnish off in school.

Other

Fake tattoos and transfers are not permitted.

Religious Headdress & Observances

We respect and uphold the principles of the Equality Act 2010 and British Values, ensuring that all children feel included and valued within our school community. The wearing of religious headdress will be considered on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the child's religion and age to ensure their safety, comfort, and full participation in school activities.

Religious Fasting

We recognise that some families may wish for their children to observe religious fasting. However, in the best interests of the child's health, concentration, and engagement, we must insist that food and drink are consumed during the school day to support brain function and active participation in learning. We encourage open discussions with families to find appropriate ways to honour religious commitments while prioritising the child's well-being.

The role of parents and carers

St Matthew's believes that the responsibilities of parents are to ensure that their child has the correct uniform, PE kit and expectations of appearance as stated above, it should be clean, in good repair and the child's name written on all items.

If any parent has difficulties for any reason with fulfilling this request, they are asked to speak to a senior member of staff to discuss their issues.

Children arriving at school with incorrect uniforms may be given uniforms from our supply of spares. The same system will apply to those children who do not bring PE kits. Continually arriving at school without appropriate uniforms will result in parents being contacted.

We ask all parents and carers to support us in this school uniform policy by sending their child to school correctly dressed and ready for their daily schoolwork. No child should be made to stand out by breaking our school uniform policy, our aim is to ensure equality.

St. Matthew's is an inclusive school community. If there are genuine reasons why parents or carers want their child to wear clothes that differ from the school uniform, the school will look at such requests.

Similarly, should an item of school uniform prove problematic for a pupil with disabilities then parents or carers are invited to draw this to the attention of the head teacher. We will ensure that we work with parents and carers to meet individual needs as far as possible.

We will also support any families who are in need, by providing items of uniform, please contact the school.

If a child continually does not follow our uniform and presentation policy, parents/carers will be invited to a meeting with school leadership to discuss the matter further and plan a way forward.

The role of Governors

It is for the governing body of a school to decide whether there should be a school uniform policy and if so, what that should be. This flows from the duties placed upon all governing bodies by statute to ensure that school policies promote good behaviour and discipline amongst the pupil body. It is also for the governing body to decide how the uniform should be sourced.

The Department of Education strongly encourages schools to have a uniform as it can play a valuable role in contributing to the ethos of a school and setting an appropriate tone.

The governing body supports the head teacher in implementing the school uniform policy. It is the responsibility of the governors to ensure that the school uniform meets all regulations concerning equal opportunities.
